This ESSENCE has been proved by many thousands of the richest and most respectable families, as well as by the poorer class of people, almost through the whole United States, to be by far the best preparation of Coffee ever offered to the public. Coffee made by this Essence is much more wholesome, more delicate, fine-flavored, perfectly clear, and, in every instance, superior to the finest Java coffee.

In order to give full satisfaction and proof that the above article is perfectly healthy, and to show something of the deserved reputation it has gained and justly entitled to, we annex a few certificates and recommendations, particularly relating to health, from Dr. Booth and Dr. Chilton, practical Chemists and Analysists of the cities of Philadelphia and New York; also, from our Agents, all of whom are prominent Chemists and Drugglists.

I have examined an article prepared by Messrs. Hummel, Bohler & Co., of Philadelphia, called Essence of Coffee, which is intended to be used with coffee for the purpose of improving it. I find it free not only from any thing injurious to health, but, on the contrary, the ingredients of which it is composed are perfectly wholesome.

TILL ANOTHER of our most talented and highly respectable citizens speaks for Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE:

Baltimore, July 18, 1851.

Messrz. Mortimer & Mowbray:—Gentlemen: My daughter having been afflicted for more than a year with the spinal disease, and having tried every remedy that was prescribed by some of our best physicians, without affording her any apparent relief. I fortunately was advised by a friend to try a bottle of "Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture," which relieved her of her pain in less than twenty-four hours. I am pleased to say that since she took it she has been free from pain, and she is gradually gaining strength, which I attribute entirely to the restorative properties of this medicine. I believe if it were more extensively used, it would do more good in the removal of such diseases incident to the human family than what is usually prescribed.

AND THE
BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing the narions of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

IS THEIR INST, VIA:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE NORTH BERTISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, AND BLACEWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their agrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact face timile of the Edinburgh edition.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scars—Dear Sir: 1 have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit: and am quits surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superi tendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and can ont but hope that they will do nuch to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, 200% ARD HITCHOOCK.

Respectfully and sincerally, your conigor servant.
